The American People's National Salute

21 Count Honors - Bell ring at five second interval between counts — This call to “Attention” pays the highest respect to Americans who have made the ultimate sacrifice for freedom.

Recognition: For a duration of two minutes, a moment of silence. The initial minute is dedicated to paying tribute to those who have selflessly given their lives, while the second is dedicated to those who, in the future, will make sacrifices to safeguard the American way of life.

Ending: Sounding of Taps
